Dear Mr. Gordon,

It is our pleasure to invite you to visit the Center for Legal Assistance to Pollution Victims (CLAPV) at China University of Political Science and Law (CUPL), for two weeks starting from November 3, 2007. This letter serves as our formal invitation to you and will provide you with more details about your visit.

We would like to invite you to participate in a roundtable on Comparative U.S.-China Environmental Litigation with participation by Chinese experts and lawyers in environmental law and lawyers from the Natural Resources Defense Council. We know you are one of the most successful plaintiff-side environmental lawyers in the United States and the leading New Jersey environmental attorney representing citizens, municipalities and environmental groups confronted with environmental catastrophes. We would also like to invite you to give a speech to our graduate students about your experiences in New Jersey.

This "Visa Notice" is for your visa application. You can apply for your visa at the Chinese Embassy / Consulate / Visa Office in Washington D.C. with it.

I understand that you will cover all the expenses during your stay in China..

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Beijing. If there is anything I can do to help, please do not hesitate to contact me or Ms. Xu Kezhu.

Yours sincerely,

Wang Canfa
